

Browning, King & Co.

ORIGINATORS AND SOLE MAKERS OF HALF SIZE IN CLOTHING.

A New Sack

Every man judges clothing advertising according to his experiences.

When we offer a new style—as we do this season in our Belmont Sack Suit—we appeal with confidence to his best judgment.

$15 to $35.

The collar is heavy, with a long roll, and the coat is distinctly form-fitting, with a bell skirt. Three buttons.

Our suits for Young Men, age 16 to 21, are very attractive in stylish shapes and patterns, and they FIT.

Price $15 to $30.

Broadway and Pine Street

SAINT LOUIS MO.

Broadway at 42nd Street NEW YORK Factory, Cooper Square

ake, recitation; Harry Rohde, juvenile special; Joseph Judge, Charlie Du Four, John Taylor and David Monahan, comprising the Mercurio quartet, selection, "Till We With Your Eyes"; Bruno Kachbach, piano solo, and Joseph Terney and Thomas Chobey, who rendered an Irish march, "The Old Neighborhood."

A euchre will be given at the Hamilton Hotel November 12, conducted by the ladies in charge of the box and basket table at Visitation Annual bazaar.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Davis are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born yesterday. Mrs. Davis was Miss Emma Whitaker.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. McAnulty have returned from their honeymoon and are in their new home at No. 365 Hartman avenue.

Miss Theresa Dowley left the city Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with friends in St. Genevieve, Mo.

In celebration of their crystal wedding, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Berger gave a reception at their home, No. 244 Hartman avenue, last evening. Mrs. Berger, being assisted in receiving by Miss Emily Woods. The house was elaborately decorated, the color scheme in the dining-room being pink and green, while that in the parlor was white and cream. Chrysanthemums, roses and lilies composed the greater part of the decorations. Musicians were seated in the front parlor, which added to the festivity.

Many presents were received from their friends, and glass gifts predominated. As a receiving party were Misses A. A. Bryden, M. P. Henson, George M. Griffin, W. H. Mittenberger, F. M. Miller, J. J. Mante, W. H. Hapner, Miss Caroline Wiggins, Miss Margaret, who rendered a song, and Mr. William Berger, who was cashier of the Jefferson Bank.

Mrs. E. Ludwig Moe of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. of Kirkwood, No. 365 Page boulevard.

Miss Florence Strodt, who has been for some time visiting relatives in the East, will return shortly.

Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Raines have been entertaining a hunting party the past week at their country home near Maywood, Mo.

Mrs. Louis Bernick of Ironville, Mo., was a St. Louis visitor the early part of last week. She was visiting her sons and daughters before she left for a month's trip.

Mrs. John Fox entertained her own club Wednesday evening.

The annual meeting of the Kirkwood branch of the Redwood Club of America was held at Mrs. Fox's home Thursday afternoon. Nearly 100 guests were present.

Everything is new and strongly made. The Kirkwood branch of the Redwood Club of America is holding its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. John Fox, 421 Madison street, at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. R. A. Quarles.

Mrs. W. W. Warren is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Siddy and Miss Edna Siddy have gone to the Rocking-Hill Hotel for the winter.

Mrs. F. A. Prince of New York is visiting her son, Alfred C. Prince.

Mrs. John E. Allen will entertain the Congregational church choir Friday evening.

The Tuesday Evening Club will hold its first meeting this week at the residence of the president, Mr. N. D. Thompson, N. O. street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen entertained the Every Other Week Thursday evening.

The contract for the building of a new house of worship for the Brewood Church will be let in a few days. The Webster Congregational Church is undertaking the work, and the Brewood Congregational will contribute to it.

Mrs. W. A. Layman is about to have built a new house at 1015 West Park.

The history and literature section of the Monday Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Carolyn Allen, Furness's novel, "Victims of the Gods," was discussed.

The Art section met in the Congregational church Thursday night. The subject was "The Art of the Future," by William A. Brown, who presented a paper on "Art in General." The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Blanchard of Port Thomas, Ky., who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Brown, at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, will leave for her home in the Philippines, where her husband is stationed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Mr. and Mrs. David Bell and little daughter left for their winter home at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, who have been with the Misses Early all summer and have taken the Brown house.

stay in Hot Springs, Ark., with her daughter, Mrs. Edna Abbott, No. 2224 Oregon avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ramsey Jr., Miss Jane Ramsey and Miss Blair are at Atlantic City at the Chalfonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Werner of No. 424 Madison street will arrive at their friends Wednesday evening, November 12.

Mrs. Joseph R. Farmer of Chalmers departed last week for New Mexico to spend several months with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Farmer.

Miss Kate McNulty returned to her home in the St. Louis, after a few days' visit to relatives and friends of the South side.

Miss Cornelia Buehler of Vista avenue departed Wednesday for the West, where she will visit the relatives of the South side.

Mrs. William W. Henderson will entertain the Thursday Club at the Washington Hotel Thursday, November 12.

WESTERN GROVES, MO.
Mrs. Samuel Shawson and her daughter, Mrs. Pauline, who have been spending several weeks in Webster with various friends, returned to New York Friday.

Miss Sarah L. Colby of Geoffrey, Ill., was recent visitor with Mrs. J. H. Allen. Miss Colby departed Monday for six weeks in New York.

Mrs. Harry Allen has cords out for a party Thursday afternoon. The card of Mrs. George H. House of No. 416 Belmont boulevard is invited.

The annual meeting and exhibition of the Webster Groves Branch of the Redwood Club of America will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. R. A. Quarles.

Mrs. W. W. Warren is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Siddy and Miss Edna Siddy have gone to the Rocking-Hill Hotel for the winter.

Mrs. F. A. Prince of New York is visiting her son, Alfred C. Prince.

Mrs. John E. Allen will entertain the Congregational church choir Friday evening.

The Tuesday Evening Club will hold its first meeting this week at the residence of the president, Mr. N. D. Thompson, N. O. street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen entertained the Every Other Week Thursday evening.

The contract for the building of a new house of worship for the Brewood Church will be let in a few days. The Webster Congregational Church is undertaking the work, and the Brewood Congregational will contribute to it.

Mrs. W. A. Layman is about to have built a new house at 1015 West Park.

The history and literature section of the Monday Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Carolyn Allen, Furness's novel, "Victims of the Gods," was discussed.

The Art section met in the Congregational church Thursday night. The subject was "The Art of the Future," by William A. Brown, who presented a paper on "Art in General." The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Blanchard of Port Thomas, Ky., who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Brown, at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, will leave for her home in the Philippines, where her husband is stationed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Mr. and Mrs. David Bell and little daughter left for their winter home at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, who have been with the Misses Early all summer and have taken the Brown house.

Walter W. Scholz has bought the house at 1015 West Park, and will occupy it with his family.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker are back from their summer home at Altoon and will occupy it with their family.

Mrs. Carolyn Allen will spend the week in Springfield, Ill., visiting her sister, Mrs. S. N. Allen.

A meeting of the Tuesday Club was held Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park. The subject was "The Art of the Future," by William A. Brown, who presented a paper on "Art in General." The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Blanchard of Port Thomas, Ky., who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Brown, at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, will leave for her home in the Philippines, where her husband is stationed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Mr. and Mrs. David Bell and little daughter left for their winter home at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, who have been with the Misses Early all summer and have taken the Brown house.

Walter W. Scholz has bought the house at 1015 West Park, and will occupy it with his family.

entertainment Friday evening, under the auspices of the L. E. O. Club. The music numbers were given and a dramatic sketch, entitled "Room Forty-Five," in which the L. E. O. Club members took part. The club members were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowl, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brownlee, Miss Edna Campbell, who rendered a song, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brownlee. The club members were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brownlee, Miss Edna Campbell, who rendered a song, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brownlee.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Armstrong have cars out for a large reception and musical entertainment at the residence of November 20. Miss Wehmelma Lowe, harpist, will be one of the performers. The entertainment will be a violinist and vocal numbers by Wednesday. Armstrong and Mrs. Franklin Knight.

KIRKWOOD, MO.
Mrs. Jacob H. Ricker departed Monday to visit his aunt, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Gill, who spent the summer at the home of Mr. Gill's family in Wales, have returned.

Mrs. Porteus, Mrs. S. T. Moore and Mrs. M. T. Good of Chicago, who spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Porteus, departed for their homes Tuesday morning.

Cards have been received by Kirkwood friends announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret Hill to John Hill, of New York City. Miss Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hill, and with them, she spent much time in the East. The ceremony will be performed in New York on November 22 and the young couple will depart immediately after for an European tour.

The Reverend Cornelius Winklin of Brooklyn, N. Y., addressed the congregations of the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches in the Presbyterian Church last Wednesday.

An entertainment will be given on December 1 by some musical young people for the benefit of the Volunteer Firemen at Church Hill.

Miss Maude Barnes of Granite City, an excellent pianist, will take part, with Misses Ruth Harris and Lela Thaxton and Messrs. Will G. Wilson, Fred Gorman, George Metcalf.

Mrs. Florence Davis of Chicago is the guest of the Misses Katherine and Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wilkinson have been invited to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret, to Mr. Charles F. Macdonald. The ceremony will be performed at St. John's Methodist Church in St. Louis, Wednesday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock. After the ceremony the bride and groom will spend the night of the immediate families at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Sloan. Miss Jane Wilkinson will serve as maid of honor, and Miss Grace Macdonald of Independence, Mo., will be bridesmaid.

Mrs. E. E. Williams departed Friday to visit her mother in Booneville, Ind., before going with Mr. Williams to spend the winter in Florida. In their absence their daughter, Miss Eva, will remain with her aunt in St. Louis.

The first of this season's meetings of the Monday Evening Club was held this week at the home of Judge and Mrs. William W. Keelson. W. S. Chapin, Chancellor of the Washington University, gave a most interesting talk on "Japan, the East, Present and Future." Mr. Chapin lived in Japan for six years, and his talk was full of the experience. A brief discussion followed the talk, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

Among those present, besides Chancellor and Mrs. Chapin, were: Messrs. and Mrs. Ashley Clark, Paul Baker, E. D. Kimball, J. B. Clayton, J. D. Greenfield, Harry B. Gill, Charles Hart, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ambler, John L. Gray, Charles W. Barstow, Franklin L. Gray, Charles R. Ruten, Charles S. King, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shattuck, E. J. Steele, Mrs. James H. Wade, J. H. Groves, Dr. H. G. Weyer, Dr. W. T. Ross, Macdonald, Mrs. C. L. Davis, S. J. Edwards, Hector D. McLean, H. A. McLean, Watson, Maude Kunkel, Sidney Richmond, Messrs. W. L. Williams, Dr. J. S. Collins, Charles Collins, F. J. Satter, J. D. Webster, George Lane, Edward.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Tausig are at the Lexington Hotel. Mr. Tausig is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Siddy and Miss Edna Siddy have gone to the Rocking-Hill Hotel for the winter.

Mrs. F. A. Prince of New York is visiting her son, Alfred C. Prince.

Mrs. John E. Allen will entertain the Congregational church choir Friday evening.

The Tuesday Evening Club will hold its first meeting this week at the residence of the president, Mr. N. D. Thompson, N. O. street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen entertained the Every Other Week Thursday evening.

The contract for the building of a new house of worship for the Brewood Church will be let in a few days. The Webster Congregational Church is undertaking the work, and the Brewood Congregational will contribute to it.

Mrs. W. A. Layman is about to have built a new house at 1015 West Park.

The history and literature section of the Monday Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Carolyn Allen, Furness's novel, "Victims of the Gods," was discussed.

The Art section met in the Congregational church Thursday night. The subject was "The Art of the Future," by William A. Brown, who presented a paper on "Art in General." The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Blanchard of Port Thomas, Ky., who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Brown, at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, will leave for her home in the Philippines, where her husband is stationed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Mr. and Mrs. David Bell and little daughter left for their winter home at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, who have been with the Misses Early all summer and have taken the Brown house.

Walter W. Scholz has bought the house at 1015 West Park, and will occupy it with his family.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker are back from their summer home at Altoon and will occupy it with their family.

Mrs. Carolyn Allen will spend the week in Springfield, Ill., visiting her sister, Mrs. S. N. Allen.

A meeting of the Tuesday Club was held Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park. The subject was "The Art of the Future," by William A. Brown, who presented a paper on "Art in General." The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Blanchard of Port Thomas, Ky., who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Brown, at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, will leave for her home in the Philippines, where her husband is stationed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Mr. and Mrs. David Bell and little daughter left for their winter home at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park, who have been with the Misses Early all summer and have taken the Brown house.

Walter W. Scholz has bought the house at 1015 West Park, and will occupy it with his family.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker are back from their summer home at Altoon and will occupy it with their family.

Mrs. Carolyn Allen will spend the week in Springfield, Ill., visiting her sister, Mrs. S. N. Allen.

A meeting of the Tuesday Club was held Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Charles Brown, at 1015 West Park. The subject was "The Art of the Future," by William A. Brown, who presented a paper on "Art in General." The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Jefferson street at a "kitchen shower" in honor of Miss Edna Siddy. Miss Schoenbeck and Attorney Charles J. Daugherty will be married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. S. Henry J. Schoenbeck, Wednesday evening, November 12. The "kitchen shower" was a pleasant surprise to the bride-elect.

The Pike Street Club has arranged to give a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. S. Henry J. Schoenbeck, Wednesday evening, November 12. The party will be given by the young ladies of the club.

A reception was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Bell, near St. Charles, in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emma. Mr. and Mrs. Bell departed for their future home in Norborne.

Mrs. P. E. Lawrence, Kas., and Mrs. Frank Brewer of St. Louis have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Sauter. Mrs. Lawrence is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cheney, at Bismarck Heights, Kas.

Professor and Mrs. W. G. Davis of Black Walnut spent several days here last week with friends.

Miss Clara G. Krome returned Monday from a visit with St. Louis friends.

Miss Irene Leverette left Tuesday for a visit to her friends in Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Isenell entertained a week-end party of visitors in their home in St. Louis street.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Julia Colman, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bruce, and Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Vance, George W. Mahler, and Wilkie Barnhart left Tuesday for Texas, to be gone several weeks.

Miss Nancy Dippold and Mr. Pogue Whitehead were quietly married Tuesday morning at the bride's home. They left immediately after the ceremony on a Western trip, and after a few days will be at home to their friends in Leclaire.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mudge returned from their trip to Chicago Friday. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jeffers at a party given at their home.

Misses Winifred Hawley, Maude Springer and Charlotte Nelson returned Tuesday from a visit to their friends in St. Louis. They are the guests of Mrs. Robt. Smith.

Mr. C. N. Travers entertained informally at the home of her friends Tuesday afternoon, to meet Mrs. Dunlap of Champaign, Ill., who talked on domestic science.

Misses Lillian and Edna Reich of Springfield, Mo., are guests of Mrs. E. J. Morrissey last week.

Miss J. S. Lucker is visiting relatives in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wade entertained the Misses Cora and Anna Louzall of Chicago last week.

Mrs. Frank Sargent is hostess to Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of Jerseyville.

Mrs. D. H. Henson of Banker Hill was a visitor in Altoon last week.

Misses Emma Rode and Mayne Fischer have returned from a visit to Altoon.

Miss Harriet Doughty has returned from a visit in Altoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis are in Chicago.

Mrs. Walter Hallam entertained with a shower Friday afternoon in honor of one of her friends.

Misses Emma Rode and Mayne Fischer have returned from a visit to Altoon.

Miss Harriet Doughty has returned from a visit in Altoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis are in Chicago.

Mrs. Walter Hallam entertained with a shower Friday afternoon in honor of one of her friends.

Misses Emma Rode and Mayne Fischer have returned from a visit to Altoon.

Miss Harriet Doughty has returned from a visit in Altoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis are in Chicago.

Mrs. Walter Hallam entertained with a shower Friday afternoon in honor of one of her friends.

Misses Emma Rode and Mayne Fischer have returned from a visit to Altoon.

Miss Harriet Doughty has returned from a visit in Altoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis are in Chicago.

Mrs. Walter Hallam entertained with a shower Friday afternoon in honor of one of her friends.

Misses Emma Rode and Mayne Fischer have returned from a visit to Altoon.

Miss Harriet Doughty has returned from a visit in Altoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis are in Chicago.

KITCHEN COMFORT

Can be found in enormous variety at our store. Our well-lighted basement shows the greatest assortment of Ranges, Stoves, Kitchen Cabinets, Chairs, Tables, Kitchen Safes and Kitchen Utensils of all kinds, shown anywhere in St. Louis. We are complete home outfitters—you'll find anything and everything necessary to furnish the house at our store—and we sell you goods on our easy and original plan of

One Dollar Each Week for as Much as $100 Worth

Buck's Brilliant SPECIAL!! OUR LEADER

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY
Handsome, massive Morris Chair, exactly like cut; solid golden oak, with handsome velvet cushions—a bargain at $7.50—this week only

$40.00
$25.00
We have also some cheaper Buck's Ranges, as low as

$5.00 ALLOWED for your old stove when buying a new one.

BRUSSELS RUGS ROOM SIZE—AT
$7.75, $9.50, $12 and $15 Each

KITCHEN CABINETS
We are showing a large and varied assortment of latest style kitchen cabinets at prices ranging from $25.00 to $100.00

ST. LOUIS HOUSE FURNISHING CO.
902-904-906 FRANKLIN AVENUE
OPEN SATURDAYS TILL 9 P. M.

WARFIELD MANSION
SOLD AT AUCTION

Julius J. Schotten Was the Successful Bidder Getting Clayton Home for $33,500—Rest of Estate Went at Good Figures.

Julius J. Schotten, president of the tea and coffee company that bears his name, has been successful in bidding for the Warfield mansion of Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

Schotten bid in the property for $33,500, and the successful bidder for the property was Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The property is located at the intersection of the Harvey road and Henson avenue in Clayton. The lot is 225x300 feet. Some one started the bidding at $10,000, but it was soon raised to $33,500.

The other bidders were $10,000 at $10,000 and finally got down to $33,500 and then on $33,500. The property was sold for $33,500.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.

The Warfield mansion is a large and beautiful house, built by Ernest Warfield, the Clayton banker, who recently committed suicide.